'DOING OUR BEST TO BE OUR BEST'

10th June 2011

Head's Message — Sarah Malam

Welcome back after what I hope was a happy and restful half term. The children certainly look happy to be back and as though they have had a good holiday!

I can't quite believe that we only have 6 more weeks to go until the end of this school year! There is so much happening this half term so please look at the dates sheet on the back so that you don't miss out on anything!

Site Developments

At the start of July there will be further work going on to develop the outside area so that playtimes are as fun and as safe as they can be for the children. We have new seating, bins, climbing and ball walls and a gazebo to go in as well as lots of planters, the outside will soon be looking as amazing as the inside of school! Some of the children in Y5 have been selected to be trained up as Playground Pals so that they can help lead games with the younger children. As we now have music outside there is also quite a lot of disco fever going on at lunchtime!

Uniform

As you know, we expect all the children at Courthouse Green to come to school wearing school uniform. Please can I remind parents that leggings are not part of school uniform—I have seen a number of girls wearing them under their school dresses and skirts. Our school uniform is:

Boys: White polo shirt, grey trousers, red sweatshirt, black shoes

Girls: White polo shirt, grey skirt/dress/trousers or red and white checked dress, red sweatshirt/cardigan, black shoes

School Council News

On Friday 17th June 2011, we will be raising money for recycle bins, bins for our classrooms and our playground. To raise money we will be having a cake sale, prices at 20p each. If parent/carers could contribute some cakes to sell we would very much appreciate it.

We are also having a non-uniform day, 50p per child.
LET'S ENJOY THE DAY AND RAISE SOME CASH!

Thank you.

Parents on site

Please can I ask all parents to make sure that when they are on school site they do not swear. I have had a number of complaints from our children that they have heard parents swear. We do not allow the children to swear in or around school, please can I ask that you do not either. Many of the complaints came from around KS1.

Attendance

As promised we have booked to take all the children (Y1 to Y6) to the Panto in December at the Belgrade Theatre and the younger children (Reception/Nursery) to Warwick Arts Centre. This is a FREE trip which will be paid for by the school to reward all the children for their efforts in improving our attendance! Well done to Y4 Rowan class as they are our best attenders in school! Well done also to Y3 children who have managed to improve their attendance over the last 3 weeks!

CAFAG FUN DAY

A great family afternoon of fun for Children with autism and their families ,in a no judgemental environment. Activities include:

Childrens entertainer/circus skills, Bouncy Castle, Balloon modelling, Table top games

Wraparound

Well done to Wrap-around who have just achieved an overall Good rating for their provision.

We are so fortunate to have such a good facility on school site to support our working parents! Well done to the Wrap-around Team—You work so hard to ensure the children have such a good time with you! You deserve this report!

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you’re finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you’re trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words. If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
